Adelynrood's Commitment to Outreach

Outreach is a vital and vibrant part of the Society's ministry to others. Our ministry of hospitality, respite, relationship, and empowering people to do God's work in the world is at the heart of both our founders' and current members' vision for Adelynrood. There is a fabric of care provided by volunteers and staff that is both empowering and transforming for all. Groups that have been hosted at Adelynrood have been caregivers, the homeless, families of deployed military, and the girls from Esperanza School in Lawrence, MA. If you would like to support the outreach ministry, we welcome donations and inquiries about the Society.

The Society of the Companions of the Holy Cross

The Society is a community of women, Christ's disciples, called by God to a life of prayer; transformation, and reconciliation within ourselves, within our Companionship, within our faith communities, and within the whole creation.

For information about the Society of the Companions of the Holy Cross, visit www.Adelynrood.org or contact the Companion-in-Charge at 978-462-1589 x17 or Companion-in-Charge@Adelynrood.org

ADELYNROOD
 RETREAT & CONFERENCE CENTER

Welcome to a Place of Peace...

Adelynrood Retreat and Conference Center offers a place for individuals seeking rest, reflection, and renewal as well as for groups looking for a place to hold workshops and retreats. The facilities accommodate up to 32 people for one-day gatherings throughout the year and up to 70 for overnight events from mid-May through mid-September. The Center includes a historic chapel, multiple libraries, screened porches, conference rooms, a labyrinth, wooded paths, and multiple gardens, including the recently dedicated Garden of Forgiveness. Just 45 minutes north of Boston, Adelynrood is situated on 15 secluded acres in quiet Byfield, MA and minutes away from historic Newburyport and the beaches of Plum Island.

The Center was founded in 1915 by the Society of the Companions of the Holy Cross (SCHC), a group of women dedicated to a rule of life of intercessory prayer, thanksgiving, and simplicity of life.

What Adelynrood Offers Individuals ...

"... this has been the most spiritual, the most contemplative, and the most welcoming, calm place that I have ever been."

If you are looking for renewal or an opportunity to discuss society's challenges, consider attending one of Adelynrood's many programs. Programs range from one-day quiet retreats that nurture mind, body, and spirit to multi-day conferences with nationally-known speakers and authors. Individuals are welcome to come on their own for rest, prayer, walking the grounds or visiting nearby attractions. A variety of program options for individuals include meditation, creative prayer, and opportunity to reflect on the connection between the spiritual and everyday life.

If you are looking for an oasis of calm away from the noise and busyness of our culture, a place to read or a time to reflect upon relationship, vocation, and personal growth, Adelynrood may be just what you are looking for. You can spend as little or as much time as you wish at Adelynrood.

What Adelynrood Offers a Group ...

"... a wonderful, peaceful, nurturing place filled with caring, thoughtful people."

"Although a non-female, non-Episcopalian, I have felt very much a companion in... the spiritual journey."

Are you looking for a special place to host a church-leadership retreat, a team-building workshop for your business, a retreat for youth, or an ecology or social justice workshop for your non-profit organization? Adelynrood invites you to consider using our buildings, spacious grounds, and meeting rooms and equipment for your event. As a part of your experience, you will be invited to take part in the daily prayer of the community, to walk the labyrinth and wooded paths, and to enjoy delicious meals.

If you are interested in booking a group event, please contact the general manager at 978-462-6721 ext. 11 or at SCHCGeneralManager@Adelynrood.org
